FEBRUARY 2026 VOLUME 30, ISSUE 2

The Rocky Hock Anchor

The Mission of Rocky Hock Baptist Church is to magnify Christ and make disciples of all people.

The Personnel Team unanimously voted to extend the call of Senior Pastor to Pastor Trey Rogers and has formally made a motion to present this call to the congregation. Because Pastor Trey has faithfully served our church for the past two years, there will be no formal Q & A session. However, Pastor Trey welcomes any questions and encourages members to stop by his office or contact him by phone. A short summary and his commitment to ministry follows.

Rev. James Richard Rogers, III ("Pastor Trey")

Pastor Trey Rogers comes to us from the mountains of Western North Carolina where faith and ministry were woven into the fabric of his life at an early age. Reared in a family of preachers, Trey is a fourth-generation Southern Baptist minister who sensed God's call to preach at age 14. He was Licensed to Preach in 2011 and later Ordained to the Gospel Ministry in 2016, after years of faithful ministry, evangelism, and pulpit supply.

Trey holds a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies from Young Harris College. While in school, he met his wife, Julianna — a native of Raleigh — and they have been married for just about 8 years now. "Mrs. Juli," as she is affectionately known by our congregation, is currently serving as a 3rd grade teacher at D.F. Walker Elementary School. Together they share a genuine love for the Lord, our church, and the surrounding community that they are proud to call home.

Over the past 15 years, Pastor Trey has served in a variety of roles — including pastoral ministry, youth and children's ministry, and music ministry. He currently serves as our Associate Pastor of Youth and Children. God has blessed this ministry with 25 student salvations, 16 student baptisms, and an overall strengthened culture of discipleship and love for God's Word.

Trey is committed to faithful, biblical preaching and hands-on pastoral care — ministering not only from the pulpit, but also in hospital rooms, living rooms, school hallways, and everyday moments of life. His heart is to shepherd God's people with compassion and truth and to equip believers to live out their faith right where they are planted.

Looking ahead, Pastor Trey envisions a season of revival and growth for our church — marked by spiritual renewal, strengthened and refreshed ministries, and a community transformed by the Gospel, all for the glory of God.

The Personnel Team, the Finance Team, and Pastor Trey have agreed upon a salary of $67,500. With a positive vote, Pastor Trey and Mrs. Juli will reside in the church parsonage. There are no anticipated moving expenses. Pastor Bob Young will continue preaching through the month of February, with the exception of February 8, when Pastor Trey will preach.

A congregational vote will be held on February 8 at the conclusion of the worship service. A favorable vote of 80% or more will result in Pastor Trey being called as Senior Pastor, with his official start date being March 1.

"An Open Door for Our Church"

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with me."

~ Revelation 3:20

Have you ever watched Let's Make a Deal? It's one of those classic game shows that comes on before The Price Is Right. One of my favorite segments of this show is called "The Big Deal of the Day." In this particular game, the final contestant stands before three large doors and they have to choose which one they think leads to the grand prize.

One door might lead to a dream vacation to Hawaii. Another could get you something modest — like a free oil change at Colony Tire. And then there's that third door! The gag prize — a bag of rocks or a pie to the face!

Life's a lot like this, too. Each day, we face a series of "doors" that can end up changing the course of our lives. But for Christians, it's not "pick a door, any door!" like on Let's Make a Deal! We're supposed to let God pick the door!

As Christians, we need to hand all of our decisions over to Him and listen for His voice to guide our steps. Whichever door He selects for us is the door that will bring Him the most glory and us the most good. This week, as I reflected on "doors" and decisions… I made a striking connection. And here it is — many of the doors mentioned in scripture foreshadow the person and the work of Jesus Christ, and each one calls us to make a decision about Him.

The first door appears in Genesis 7:16, where Scripture tells us that God Himself shut the door of Noah's ark. My friends, this door is a picture of Jesus Christ. For He is the only path to salvation. It is only through Him that we find shelter and escape the storm of God's wrath and judgement. Jesus is "the way, the truth, and the life. No man cometh to the Father but by [Him]" (John 14:6). There is no other way!

And notice this — the door of grace was only open for a time. There came a time when God shut the door to Noah's Ark… and when God closes a door, no man can open it. Even today, we must make a decision about Jesus — because one day, He's coming back! And if you wait to get ready, it'll be everlasting too late. Jesus is the door of salvation.

The next door can help deepen our understanding of the price of salvation and is found in Exodus 12. On the night of the first Passover, God instructed His people to place lamb's blood on the doorposts of their homes. A plague of death was about to sweep through the land… but God promised: "When I see the blood, I will pass over you." Life and death literally hinged on the door — but not just any door! A door marked by blood.

Scripture teaches us that without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins (Heb. 9:22). And in John 1:29, Jesus is called "the Lamb of God," sent to take away the sins of the world! So this moment at Passover carries us straight to the Cross. The lambs of Egypt were merely signposts, pointing to the true Lamb to come — and His Name was and is Jesus Christ. His blood was poured out for our redemption.

Have you walked through this door? Is your door marked by the blood of the Lamb? Not by good intentions… but by faith in the finished work of Christ? Have you been washed in the cleansing flow? If you haven't, you will find that Jesus is the door of forgiveness.

Finally, in the New Testament… Jesus brings all of this imagery together with one clear and powerful declaration — "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture*"* (John 10:9). Pay close attention to what He says. He's not a door or one of many doors… He is the door. Jesus is the fulfillment of every other door that foreshadowed His coming in the Old Testament. Jesus is the door of pasture and peace. And if you need rest for your soul, you can find it in His grace.

But wait — there's more! In Revelation 3:20, Jesus takes it a step further. He's no longer describing the door — He is standing at the door. And He's knocking.

Here, He offers a special invitation of renewed fellowship and intimacy to the Laodecian Church: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him, and he with me." This is not just a call to unbelievers, but also to God's people — to a church that belongs to Him and desperately needs Him with each passing day.

Rocky Hock — church that I love — as we move forward together into a new year… I can't help but believe that Jesus is knocking on the door of our church. I can't help but believe that God has placed an "open door" before us. A door that He has set in place — a door of renewal, healing, Gospel impact, and growth. A door that invites us to move forward together. A door that leads to something good and something that brings glory to His Name! The question before us is not whether or not the door is open… because it is. The question is… whether or not we will step through it together. Are you ready?

Praise and Proclamation Go Hand in Hand

By Kristen Sosebee, Missions Mosaic

Sometimes our prayer life suffers. In haste to unburden our worries, cares, or anxiety, our prayers lack a crucial component: PRAISE. If we are honest, it's because we forget we are praying to a perfect, holy God. How can this be possible? How can we forget we are praying to the God of our salvation, the God of all creation, to King Jesus, who is sovereign over all?

A couple of reasons can be identified. Our gaze is inwardly focused on our problems or outwardly focused on the problems around us. We forget to fix our eyes on Christ. We do not and cannot see His splendor, His majesty, or His beauty because we are not looking at Him. We are slow to sing His praise. We were created to worship God and this is the foundation to everything else about us.

We need to pay attention. Why? Because paying attention helps us know how to respond appropriately. We should be mindful of this same thing when we approach God in prayer. We need to look at the God we are praying to. We need to let who He is fill our gaze. He is holy, He is powerful, and He is worthy of our praise. When you pray, fix your gaze on Christ.

Psalm 96:1-3 gives us a better perspective: "Sing to the Lord a new song, sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord, bless His name. Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day. Tell of His glory among all nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples."

We are summoned to "sing to the Lord a new song, sing to the Lord all the earth." The psalmist is calling us to worship. When we praise God, our hearts become rooted in His nature and character. Psalm 96 tells us to praise God, but it also instructs us to, "sing to the Lord and proclaim His salvation." When we praise God regularly in prayer, we train our hearts to proclaim His name.

In Matthew 12:34, Jesus said, "For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of." When our hearts are full of praise for God, then our mouths will follow. As God's people, our praise should be set apart to God alone. Not only that, but our praise to God is what sets us apart from the world. Take a moment to pray, praising God for who He is and what He has done.

When we praise God in prayer, we are laying the foundation for a missional mindset. As Christians, our transformed hearts will compel our mouths to overflow with praise to God. Praise is the one way we have been given to make His glory known on earth. Praise that goes upward will flow outward.

As Christ fills our gaze, our hearts overflow in His presence, our mouths sing His praise, and people are drawn to Him. This is our global calling—make Christ known among the nations.

PRAYER:
Lord, help me keep my gaze fixed on YOU. Give me eyes to see Your beauty, glory, and wonder. Instruct my mind and fill my heart to overflowing with knowledge of You. As I learn to praise You first in prayer, give me also winning words and a bold mouth to proclaim Your salvation among all people. Amen.
