The Rocky Hock Anchor

The Mission of Rocky Hock Baptist Church is to magnify Christ and make disciples of all people.

"Strengthened Hands"

Nehemiah 2:18 – "And, they said, 'let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work."

Last month, I told you that I believed our church was on the precipice of something truly special — a genuine, old-fashioned, Spirit-led, God-ordained revival. And since penning those words... I've come to believe them more and more. I have seen the evidence of the Hand of God moving in our midst; strategically placing us into a season of renewal and reinvigorated love for the Lord Jesus Christ.

With Spring Revival right around the corner, all I can say is... I'm excited! Why am I so excited you might ask? Because I've been a part of these kinds of seasons and I know how transformative they can be for a church. True revivals are sent from the Lord with a specific goal in mind — stoking the coals of our love for Jesus, drawing us to a place of repentance, realigning our hearts and strengthening our hands for the work that Jesus has called us to do. Because in order for us to be the kind of church God wants us to be... our love for Him must be out-of-this-world, our sins must be dealt with, our hearts and motives must be right, and our hands must be strong enough to handle the next task He sends our way. So when we sense that God is moving us in this direction... count it all joy!!

One of the most powerful revivals I've ever been a part of was back in 2012-13 at Peachtree Memorial Baptist Church in Cherokee County, NC. It was headed up by a man named Rev. Fred Lunsford — a WW2 combat veteran who fought in the Battle of the Bulge. After this, he returned home to Western North Carolina to answer the call to preach. Over time, he Pastored several churches in the community — all of which grew and experienced times of refreshing. Everyone loved Fred, because he was a true man of God. He eventually became the Director of Missions (DOM) for the local Baptist Association and spent many years pouring into congregations. People trusted Fred.

So when he got a Word from the Lord about having a community revival... everyone got on board real fast. They knew that he had heard from God. And so preachers began to sign up to preach and Peachtree Memorial — which was a large church for that area — volunteered to host. Everything was coming together because God was in it.

By this point in my life, I had already been called to preach for a year or two and I was trying to attend as many revivals as I could...especially this one. I distinctly remember hearing Rev. Johnny Foster speak for the first time one of those nights — the same Johnny Foster that will be preaching for our Spring Revival in April. He spoke as a man who had just come from the presence of God and was sharing a fresh, needed, timely word. I believe that all of the community churches benefited from that time together. People were saved, saints were strengthened, and the Body was revived.

Don't you long to see that at Rocky Hock? I do*. And I'm asking you to get on board with it and get serious about it. When we sense that God is at work, like we have been recently, we need to fall on our knees and pray. We need to ask God to send revival and to start with us. We need to pray for souls to be drawn to Christ and weary Christians to be given an unction from the Holy One. Right now, is the time to prepare.

I distinctly remember that it took several months to plan out and pray for the aforementioned revival. They took their time and listened to God. They met and prayed and prepared their churches for what God was doing.

Having said all of that... I am issuing a church-wide challenge: 1) Pray daily for our church, for our revival, and for our revival speaker. And 2) I'm inviting you and your family to meet with Julianna and I to pray at the front door of the church at midnight on Saturday, April 18th — the day before our revival starts.

I realize that not everyone will be able to make it and there's no obligation to come... but for those who can, I challenge you to mark your calendars and bring your families. We will meet together — sacrificially and briefly — as a church family, to cry out to God to send the true revival that we so desperately need.

In the scriptures, we read that when Nehemiah arrived in Jerusalem to rebuild the city walls, he arose at midnight to access the damage and devise a plan. It was during this midnight hour that God showed Nehemiah what needed to be done. The next day, he rallied the people to get to work... and the Bible says that they "strengthened their hands."

It's time to get our hands ready, Rocky Hock. Bring them with you on April 18th and lift them high to a Holy God as we seek His face and pray for His will.

Trey Rogers, Senior Pastor

with Rev. Johnny Foster

April 19th - 22nd

Sunday @ 11 AM & 6 PM

Monday - Wednesday @ 7 PM

Beginning with a meal one hour prior to the service each night and special music at each service.

We are excited to announce that Rev. Johnny Foster will be preaching at our Spring Revival this year!

Johnny was born and raised on a poultry and cattle farm in Murphy, NC. In 1975, at the age of 24, he surrendered to God's call to preach, and later graduated from Fruitland Baptist College in Hendersonville, NC in 1979.

Foster has pastored several different churches throughout Western NC and has been privileged to be involved in numerous mission opportunities, both in the States and overseas, as well as, several revival services over the years.

In August 2020, Rev. Foster "semi-retired" from the pastorate, and continues to fulfil his calling by preaching revivals, filling pulpits, doing evangelistic ministry, and singing, as God opens doors of opportunity.

With over 50 years of experience behind the pulpit, Pastor Johnny said that it is his hearts sincere desire to be God's man — following His plan of service for him, until He calls him home.

We hope you'll join us for revival the week of April 19-22— come ready to receive a blessing, and please be in prayer for Johnny and his wife Geneva, as they travel to Rocky Hock!

On Sunday nights, our adults will gather in the sanctuary for "DEEP DIVE" — a Bible study that's intentionally designed to help reinforce what God has been teaching us on Sunday mornings.

Sunday Evening "DEEP DIVES" give us an opportunity to slow down, ask lingering questions from that morning's service, and examine other relevant scriptures to help supplement our series or the sermon that God has laid on Pastor Trey's heart for that week.

We believe you're going to be blessed by this time in God's Word and that God is going to do some amazing things in your life through it!

Please join us on Sunday nights at 6:00 PM for this special time in the Word.

On Wednesday nights, our adults will gather in the sanctuary for prayer and a new ministry called "WORSHIP Seeds."

During these weekly sessions, we take a "sneak peek" at the passage that will be preached on the upcoming Sunday — exploring the historical setting, geography, key Greek or Hebrew words, and other related Scriptures that will help deepen our understanding of the text.

By going over these items in advance — a lot of which we don't have time to cover during a regular Sunday morning service — we will be planting "WORSHIP Seeds" so that when Sunday morning rolls around, the Word of God has already begun to take root in our hearts!

WALKING ON THE WAVES

From: devotions4teens.com

Background Story: Jesus has been teaching and preaching. He just fed 5,000 people with a couple loaves of bread and a few fish. He goes away to pray and the disciples go ahead of Him on a boat to cross the water.

Read: Matthew 14: 22 - 33
22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. 23 After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. Later that night, he was there alone, 24 and the boat was already a considerable distance from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.
25 Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. 26 When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear. 27 But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." 28 "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." 29 "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"
31 Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?" 32 And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. 33 Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Big Idea: Jesus is the constant.

Maybe today in your life, you find yourself full of faith like Peter walking on top of the waves. Or maybe you are surrounded by life's storms and feel like you're barely keeping your head above the water. The good news is… no matter if you feel like Peter on the water or Peter in the water, there is one constant in this story that doesn't change.

In science, the "constant" is the variable or item that remains the same in the experiment. It remains unchangeable no matter what happens around it. What is the constant here? The constant is Jesus. Whether Peter was walking in faith or Peter was sinking in doubt, Jesus was ALWAYS walking towards him. Jesus never left him, moved, or gave up. Jesus continued to reach towards Peter inviting him to Himself.

The longer we live, the more we all realize that life never stays the same. Life includes times of triumphs where it might seem easy to praise God, but also moments of weakness where we might feel like giving up. Even though we feel the rollercoaster of life, thankfully Jesus is not like us. "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). He remains unmovable, unshakable and unchangeable in His constant pursuit of you no matter your past or present.

Jesus sees you. Instead of pretending you're fine while the waves roar around you, call out to Him like Peter, "Lord, save me." When we do, we will realize that Jesus has never left our side and is right there with His hand extended out towards us ready to draw us close to Himself. And as we see His faithfulness time and time again, we too will worship with a greater faith saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Takeaway Verse: Hebrews 13:8
"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

Our Generous God from Missions Mosaic, Spring 2026

by Selah Ulmer, author and Christian Health Coach who holds an M. Div. from Midwestern Seminary

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear." ~ Luke 12: 22

When I was 11, I got glasses. I vividly remember that first ride home after getting my glasses. The street signs had crisp letters, the houses and building had definition, and the grass was no longer a blurry mass. Putting on my glasses felt like accepting an invitation to see all the goodness I had been missing. When my vision was corrected, my experience of the world became more than I could have imagined.

Seeking the kingdom of God is like putting on glasses. It changes our entire perspective. It gives us purpose in the call to share the gospel and make disciples. It gives us freedom to focus on God's assignments for us instead of worrying about earthly things. As we seek the kingdom, His care for us becomes clear, His faithfulness becomes evident, and life becomes so much greater than we could have imagined.

In Luke 12: 22 - 34, we discover that seeking the kingdom of God gives us a new perspective on material resources. While the world sees resources as something to gain and keep at all costs, God's vision for money and material things is so much better.

WHO BY WORRYING CAN ADD A SINGLE HOUR TO THEIR LIFE?

In these verses, where Christ reminds His disciples how He provides for birds and flowers, He concludes by telling them to give what they have to the poor and to let God provide for their needs. This instruction may make many of us uncomfortable, but look at the passage again. Jesus spends the majority of it focusing on a different, foundational command: "Do not worry" (vs. 22). In fact, most of the passage is focused on these three words.

And isn't worry often at the root of our lack of generosity? We worry we will not have what we need, so we tighten our hold on our resources in an effort to guarantee we will be OK. What do we gain by doing this? As Jesus' words bluntly remind us, no matter how much time and energy we put into stressing, strategizing, and fretting over the things of life, we do not have control.

We can't add time to our lives by worrying (vs. 25). All it does is prove how powerless we are. But the God we serve is the opposite. He is the One who ordained our days that were written in His book "before one of them came to be" (Psalm 149: 16). He is the One who holds power over all. Everything in heaven and earth belongs to Him (1 Chron. 29: 11), and He knows and cares about what we need (Phil. 4: 19).

MUCH MORE VALUABLE THAN THE BIRDS

God offers us a kingdom mindset rooted in trust and peace, not worry. Jesus said the responsibility of ensuring we will have what we need is not, in fact, placed on us but on God. Everything on earth belongs to God. He made it and holds it all together. Nothing we own is really ours; rather, it is a gift from the Lord. Jesus' words remind us our God is generous and pays attention to details. He clothes the wildflowers (Luke 12: 27 - 28) and feeds the birds (vs. 24). We are so much more valuable to God than the flowers and birds. If He can take care of them, He will absolutely take care of us.

God is our Father. He loves us intimately and deeply and knows what we need (vs. 30). We do not have to worry about having enough, because we trust God will take care of us as He has promised to do.

TREASURE IN HEAVEN

At the end of this passage, after establishing a kingdom mindset and reminding believers to place our trust in the Father, Jessus demonstrated how we should handle material resources. He instructed His followers to share what they have with the poor and to focus on storing up treasure in heaven, not on earth.

This treasure will never wear out and can never be taken from us. While riches here on earth are temporary and can be taken away or lost in an instant, this heavenly treasure is forever. We store up treasures in heaven when we live with a generous attitude, looking for ways to share what God has given us and prioritizing loving others and caring for their needs. Matthew 6: 1 - 4 gives us more insight into storing up this treasure. In this passage, Jesus said that when we give to those in need, we should do it in secret. Giving is not something we should do to fuel our pride or build ourselves up. Instead, we should do it quietly with the purpose of honoring God by loving other people.

I have been blessed to experience this firsthand. I grew up in a pastor's family that was part of a generous church. We had meals provided for us when we were sick, vacations paid for by anonymous church members, and cars given to us through the years. We truly experienced the generosity of God through His people when we were in need. At the same time, I saw my parents go out of their way to care for others when they were also in need. I got to see Luke 12: 22 - 34 in reciprocal action, and it was beautiful.

We can share our resources with others because God has shared His resources with us. He will never run out of what we need. When we share our resources, we get to put on spiritual "glasses" and see the world from God's view. Seeing from His perspective offers us an invitation to imitate our generous God. When we do, we discover it truly is better to "give than to receive" (Acts 20: 35).

Pray that God will help you view the material resources He has given you through spiritual eyes and gain treasures in heaven through generosity.
