The Rocky Hock Anchor

The Mission of Rocky Hock Baptist Church is to magnify Christ and make disciples of all people.

Pastor's Corner

One of the things I have enjoyed since living in Rocky Hock is the beautiful starry nights we are blessed with so regularly. I remember the two years we lived in Chicago, because of the city lights, it was rare that you would see more than a few stars in the sky on a clear night. But here, we are blessed by a glorious display on most nights. It's amazing to think that every star is as big or bigger than the sun, each has a solar system much like ours, with planets rotating around them, each existing an unfathomable distance away. And yet they seem like beautiful adornments of the night sky, while each one represents the vastness of space.

A thought that recently encouraged me was that the night Jesus was born, he came into the world under those same stars. Every one of them, in all of their vastness, represents a powerfulness and expansiveness that is still incomprehensible to the human mind. Yet this baby, coming so helplessly into the world to such a lowly couple in such a humble circumstance, was the one that hung all of those stars in the sky. He was the one who could call them by name. He was the only one on all of the earth who could fathom the vastness of the expanse of heaven because he was the one who planned and created it. When I look out at the night sky, I see an inconceivable expanse. He would look at it and behold his handiwork. As vast and massive as the night sky is, it is small compared to Christ. As we see the vastness of the heavens, we are seeing a testimony of the greatness of our Savior.

I want to encourage all of us to hear this song of creation that praises our God for His vast power and Holy Strength. Let this summer be a time that we take in the Glory of our God and worship Him, for He is greater than we can fathom.

Grace and Peace!

"The Summer Camp Zone"

"You are about to enter another dimension. A dimension not only of sight and sound, but of mind. A journey into a wondrous land of imagination. Next stop… [Summer Camp]!" ~ Rod Serling

Submitted for your approval – Over 2,000 students congregated in the mountains. They have left home, and journeyed from far and wide, with only one bath towel, a pair of crocs, and a small duffle. They descended almost simultaneously… but, their arrival was no surprise! They were expected. As a matter of fact, it took more than a year for their host to plan and prepare. Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of prayers were prayed for each student prior to their arrival. And now, they were on site! Every second of every day would be centered around the worship and adoration of Jesus… and this would go on for 5 days.

The scenario you've just been given isn't from the Twilight Zone! It was reality! We have just returned from FUGE at Ridgecrest Camp and Conference Center and I'm excited to tell you about how God has been at work!

In all my years of ministry, I've never been a part of such a wonderful camp experience. All our chaperones were pros, the preaching was solid, the staff was great, the food was "mid," the worship lit a flame in our students' hearts, and there was little to no complaining all week long!

Many wonderful things happened throughout the week, but I would like to highlight one aspect in particular. Each night after worship, we would gather as a church group in a large classroom to debrief and discuss the day. These proved to be the most pivotal moments of our week. While other groups hooped and hollered all around us and used this time in different ways… God used this time to quieten us down.

During this time, we drew from James 5:16, and for hours, students confessed their sins and shared their struggles. It was such an encouragement to see them be so open and ask for prayer! I truly believe that some of our students got freed from their addictions. And I'm sorry you missed it! What's more -- we had 2 young men accept Christ as their Lord and Savior: Ayden McPherson and Kyle Jackson. These two young men felt the drawing of the Holy Spirit unto salvation and they were quickened to new life as they answered the call! Please join me in praying for them as they begin this journey with Jesus!

Lastly, please pray for us as we leave early Monday morning for another camp in the mountains! CentriKid at Eagle Eyrie Camp and Conference Center in Lynchburg, VA. Pray for safety, pray for our chaperones, and pray for our children to hear and respond to the Gospel of Jesus Christ! Can't wait to get back and tell you all about it!

Radiant Faith
SHARING HOPE WHEN THEY "HAVE IT ALL"

Jesus gave us an imperative to make disciples (Matt. 28:18-20). The primary work of making disciples is the ongoing sanctification of the believer. Making disciple makers means that we disciple others, who in turn disciple others, who in turn disciple others, and so on. We share the good news of Christ—in formal and informal situations—with others wherever we go.

AN INTENTIONAL, ONGOING PROCESS

As Christ followers, we are to be intentional in sharing the gospel as God provides the opportunities and as the Spirit encourages and strengthens us to tell others about Jesus. Remember that salvation comes when someone hears the gospel proclaimed and the Holy Spirit works in his or her heart.

We are to live on mission, which means we are always looking for opportunities to share the gospel. Our steadfast faith enables us to look to Christ and draw radiance from Him (Psalm 34:5). The result is faith that propels us to share the gospel and show the transforming power of Christ in and through our lives.

WHEN THEY "HAVE IT ALL"

Our calling to share hope with those around us who are struggling can seem obvious. Yet sometimes we forget to share hope with those who are experiencing life's blessings in abundance. These situations can be challenging because people's blessings often obscure their understanding that they need Christ all the time.

The concepts of Christ followers being living sacrifices (Rom. 12:1-2) and taking up their crosses (Matt. 16:24) can lead nonbelievers—particularly those who experience wealth and comfort—to be wary, making it difficult to share the gospel with them. Our responsibility is to help them recognize that we need Jesus at all times—in good times and challenging times.

PRACTICAL TIPS FOR SHARING THE HOPE OF CHRIST

Sharing the hope of Christ in relationships involves patience, respect, active listening, genuine empathy, and transparent relatability. You can help someone recognize the spiritual aspects of his or her life and circumstances. Start by using Scripture to help the person understand that God is at work in and through everything he or she encounters, and teach him or her who God is. Invite the person to go shopping, ride along to run errands, make visits to homebound loved ones, and do other activities together that provide opportunities for you to share your life and the gospel.

As we live on mission sharing the gospel, we pray our radiant faith will shine so brightly, through the work of the Holy Spirit, that it points others to the only source of hope and help—Jesus Christ.
