The Rocky Hock Anchor

The Mission of Rocky Hock Baptist Church is to magnify Christ and make disciples of all people.

Pastor's Corner

What is a church? We often hear it said that a church is not the building, it is the people. And while true, it is also incomplete. The church is not just the people, it's the people gathered.

The Greek word for church means a gathering, with a well-defined membership. So then, a church is defined by the worship that takes place as it gathers together on a Sunday morning. This is why the Bible commands us to not forsake the gathering together of believers, because if we forsake it then we are not a church anymore.

I am so thankful for the beautiful facility that we have here at Rocky Hock, but we must remember it is what happens in that building that is primary, not the facility itself. It is the gathering that is sacred. God promises to bless the gathering of his saints; he promises to inhabit the praises of His people. So then, let us gather together in worship and not forsake it in the coming year.

Grace and Peace!

RHBC is responsible for feeding the Boys & Girls Club on the following dates: February 25th and May 27th. There are 150 children registered in the club, with a normal after-school attendance of 125 – 130. There are two options for feeding them: 1) You can prepare a hot meal and deliver it to the club at 3:00 PM on the appropriate date, or 2) You can bring food the preceding day for their kitchen staff to prepare. Some groups bring hot dogs or hamburgers (to be cooked by the kitchen staff) with buns and potato chips, while others bring pizza and a sweet treat or chicken tenders and mac & cheese.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

If your Sunday School Class or Women's Circle is willing to volunteer to feed the Boys & Girls Club, please contact Keith Rollins at 337-5392 or 221-8993. Thanks for helping us fulfill this mission opportunity!

DISASTER RESPONSE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTISTS ON MISSION

Disaster Relief Training
Saturday, February 22 @ Rocky Hock Baptist Church

Registration is now open. You may register by going online to: https://baptistsonmission.org/Training/Disaster-Relief-Training. Scroll down and click on the appropriate location (we are Region 1). You may also register by calling Baptists on Mission Office at 800-395-5102 ext. 5606. Registration closes on the Monday prior to the training weekend (2-17-25). Cost is $40 per person. Training will take place from 8:30 AM - 3:00 PM. Lunch is provided.

NC Baptists on Mission Disaster Response Training is available to all believers who have a passion to serve others. Disaster Response is a unique mission experience because of the sudden nature of the event, difficult conditions, and high expectations from other Relief Organizations and survivors. We hope you desire to serve God in this type of ministry and that you will fulfill that desire through NC Baptists on Mission Disaster Response.

THE ZONE

"Don't Forget to Pray"

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." ~ Matthew 7: 7 - 12

A few years ago, my Dad, who is now 65, underwent a major health scare. Up until that time, Dad was in great health and seemed to be invincible.

All of that changed, however, one fateful September morning as he was outside doing some yard work. All of a sudden he became disoriented and forgetful; he knew something was wrong. Hustling back up the hill with sweat pouring off his body, he found my Mom and told her he needed help.

After this, he became intermittently despondent. My Mom began asking him questions (e.g., What's your name? What year is it? etc.) and his responses to these questions were "hit and miss." He knew who he was and what year it was, but he had forgotten that his Father and oldest Sister had just passed away… and he began to weep.

When Juli and I got there, Dad was walking up and down the driveway aimlessly, trying to find a non-existent fence that "he had put up the day before." I'll never forget the confused look on his face. As I looked into his eyes, I cried out to God and asked Him to help my Dad and show us what was going on.

On the way to the hospital, I continued to pray. Meanwhile, our church was praying, their church was praying, our family was praying, the community was praying… for God to heal and fully restore my Dad. We truly believed God could do it.

Long story short, after spending half a day at the Emergency Room… we learned that Dad had had a "heat stroke." Within just a few hours, he regained all of his memory and we were able to go home, like nothing had even happened. God deserves all the glory.

Why have I shared this story with you? The answer is simple: because it highlights the goodness of God and reminds us that He does, in fact, hear our prayers. Don't get me wrong — things don't always go the way we hope or expect, and we should give God the glory either way — but I sure am thankful that God heard our prayers that day. What a wonderful God we serve! Hallelujah!

This year, I encourage you to pray and ask boldly. Pray for your friends. Pray for your family. Pray for your church. Pray for the lost. Pray that you would go deeper in your faith. And rejoice in the fact that God hears and answers our prayers.

We Care for One Another

CARING FOR FELLOW BELIEVERS LEADS TO UNITY, A LIGHT THAT SHINES ON A BROKEN WORLD.

God desires for Christians to live in unity. When we lose ourselves in unselfish service to one another, there is little room for division.

First Corinthians 12 is about spiritual gifts — gifts given to believers by the Holy Spirit to be used to honor God. Paul emphasized that no gift was more significant than the others but all are necessary for the full working of the body of Christ. He shared this "so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other" (vs. 25).

Why would the Apostle Paul mention care for one another in the middle of talking about spiritual gifts? He knew humans — even believers — are prone to comparison, but unity in the body of Christ has profound benefits not only to believers themselves but also to a lost world.

In His high priestly prayer in John 17, Jesus prayed His disciples and future believers would dwell in unity. Unity is an outgrowth of the joy of caring for one another.

The way believers live in unity is a reflection to nonbelievers of how God desires unity with them too. So how can believers display care for one another in a world consumed with sin?

1. Begin with prayer. Pray each day that your fellow believers would utilize their God-given gifts and be in intimate relationship with the Lord. Praying for the spiritual growth of fellow believers builds up the whole body.
2. Listen. In our hurried lives, a listening ear can become a cherished gift to someone who needs to know you care. Listen to the people God puts in your path when they tell you about their struggles.
3. Look for ways to act. Write down the needs you learn of among fellow believers and act on them. You may visit a nursing home or the home of a grieving widow or widower or prepare a meal for a sick person or new parents. Write a letter of encouragement. Whatever you do, do it in the name of the Lord.

Having "equal concern for each other" (vs. 25) means "If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it" (vs. 26). Each member of the body of Christ — and the spiritual gifts he or she has — is vital to the working of the full body of Christ. As you care for one another, the body of Christ will be better equipped to engage a lost and broken world.
